WORKPLACE MEDIATION SERVICES - DEAL WITH CONFLICT

Conflicts arise in all organisations and if not tackled relationships can break down between staff, between staff and management or between management and third parties such as unions.

The breakdown of such relationships is costly in terms of:

- Lost productivity
- Management time
- Recruitment costs
- Reduced morale
- Sickness absence
- Loss of key staff
- Tribunal claims
- Damage to brand

AVOID THESE COSTS

We offer a workplace mediation service, so that an independent Accredited Workplace Mediator will come into your workplace or a venue of your choosing and help facilitate resolution of the conflict.

WORKPLACE MEDIATION IS:

- Empowering – the mediator’s role is one of facilitation - the parties set the objectives
- Flexible in terms of solutions which it can provide
- Focussed on moving forward
- Confidential
- Without prejudice (so the discussions cannot be referred to in any court or tribunal proceedings) until an agreement is reached
- Quick – most mediations will last 1 day alone
- Cost effective
